

I'm Trans! is a zine all about the trans experience. It is made to be a collection of comics, for trans people to find relatable. A lot of the stories told in this zine are true anecdotes from both myself and some of my friends who are also transgender. It was interesting and so much fun to make this with them in mind!